

A wet, wild and windy Storm Riley

Members of the Plymouth County Technical Rescue Team, an elite swift/flood water rescue team get control of a pickup that floated off the road at high tide. They want to make sure the engine is turned off.

Police Officer Marc Maffeo got storm many related and other calls while we were out Friday.

Duxbury Fire Chief Kevin Nord and Alex Merry, Duxbury FF/ Paramedic, discuss a recovery plan for a pickup that floated into Bluefish River. Photos by Karen Wong

Fallen trees in West Duxbury makes roads impassible.

Photo by Lisa Connell

A tree takes down a treehouse and garage at 787 Keene St.

Photo by Lisa Connell

Crews were out securing wires on Tremont Street near Alden Street. during the storm Friday.

Shortly before high tide on Friday, water was up the Marshall Street bridge on Standish Shore.